

mdi ensemble is delighted to announce the composers who have won the second edition of Call for Scores, valid for two concerts in Sound of Wander 2017 and 2018 (December 20, 2017 and March 2018).

Below the list of selected composers:

Radivojevic Nemanja	(both pieces selected, one for December, one for March)
Urquiza Mikel	(March)
Troiani Lorenzo	(March)
Kuwabara Yu	(March)
Lin Wei-Chieh	(December)
Asuroglu Utku	(December )
C. Goldsmith Francisco	(December or March, tbc)
Maxbauer Andrew	(March)
Angelakis Ioannis	(December)
Languillat Raphael	(March)
Panariello Claudio	(December)
Santini Giovanni	(December)

mdi ensemble would like to mention the following composers as particularly notable:

Sakagian Filippas
Jimenez Tamame Diego
Pang Chung Ting
Skweres Tomasz
Mael Bailly

All the candidates mentioned will be contacted via email as soon as possible for all the details concerning the collaboration and the performances.

mdi ensemble would like to thank all the composers who submitted their scores, which were 178 in total.

Milan, September 15th 2017